

Title:	MANAGEMENT POLICY
Issue 3.0		Effective Date 03/03/21	Section 1.2	Page 1 of 1

VITALDRIVE LTD is one of the world leaders in the design and production, assembling and testing of High Voltage test Laboratories and safety belts

VITALDRIVE LTD maintains an excellent reputation of Delivery, Choice, and Quality, coupled with its impressive of ability to meet all customer specifications, will undoubtedly ensure continued success. The organization's commitment and expertise to the service required by the design and production, assembling and testing of High Voltage test Laboratories and safety belts industry is the competitive advantage, which stands up to the high Quality/OH&S service.

It is the policy of VITALDRIVE LTD to establish and maintain high Quality service and product range, managing all our activities so as to provide exemplary levels of care. This is enforced by our business strategy, which fall in compliance to the requirements of BS EN ISO 9001:2015. This couples profitability and competitiveness by meeting and exceeding the expectations of our customers and our Management standards, in a way that promotes their respect and mutual loyalty.

VITALDRIVE LTD Total Management Policy is to always provide its customers with best Quality products through its continue improvement program, which is based on sincere customer feedback, teamwork, within the Company and in conjunction with our suppliers and Customers, minimizing the risk of its manufacturing operations on the Health & Safety.

VITALDRIVE LTD is fully conscious that the Quality is a central business concern and accepts its responsibilities towards the Quality Control System.

The successful implementation of this policy has its foundations in the personal and visible commitment and involvement of every person working in VITALDRIVE LTD site, creating the supportive Health & Safety, teamwork and discipline processes needed to accomplish our stated goals. Through an ongoing investment VITALDRIVE LTD aims to attain best-in-Class facilities, people, and market research, which are the fundamentals behind VITALDRIVE LTD Commitments to Excellent and Management Policy and we will do all the efforts to eliminate, minimize, any Health & Safety risks, while making effective use of all materials and resources. Our Priority for decision-making purposes is:

- Quality
- Health & Safety
- Cost
- Schedule
- Environment (EMS)

Our aim is to develop lasting partnership with suppliers who demonstrate standards and practices consistent with our own, bearing always a commitment to comply with the existing and future legislation in the Republic of Cyprus.

This policy which fully complies to the requirements of the applied international standards and statutory requirements and meets our set management programmes and objectives, which, are annually reviewed at Management meetings, can only be accomplished by developing, establishing and maintaining a management system that encompassed all of the Company's personnel and activities.

The management system has been approved by all levels of management with the mission to affirm that all services provided will meet or even exceed requirements classified by the Company's customers, its Management Assurance System and its Health & Safety commitment in continuously seeking to improve and minimize the risk that its activity have on the employees' Health & Safety. This Policy will be made available to the public on request.

VITALDRIVE Ltd
Dr. Vladimir Gnatko
Managing Director